

CLOSING KEYNOTE — PEACE IS A STRATEGY: THE COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE OF CALM LEADERSHIP

4.73

21 responses · High

STRONGEST POSITIVE

Danielle's presence makes you feel calm and confident, like everything is and will be okay. She always has a valuable perspective to share — perfect way to wrap up an amazing conference.

KEY IMPROVEMENT

Wish we would have had time for a Q&A; with her!

What did you like best about this session?

- Wonderful way to end an amazing conference. Thank you!
- Glad I was able to be here at PRC
- It was so real! Heartfelt!
- Danielle's energy, kindness, and actually applicable approach to centering ourselves in the AEC industry.
- Danielle was amazing. So inspirational and relatable. I can't wait to listen to her speak again in the future.
- I loved her stage presence
- This session was a great reminder to keep doing what I'm doing. To meditate and breathe, pause.
- Closing ceremonies are always so much fun! Can't believe it's already coming to an end.
- This message really stuck, I've already found myself applying what she was talking about and I can't say that about most keynotes.
- Proof that being calm/peaceful works and how costly it is not to be. Peace is also contagious. One of the top sessions I attended
- Danielle is a great speaker.
- The framework.
- Danielle's presence makes you feel calm and confident, like everything is and will be okay. She's cool and collected and, as someone who has heard her speak a couple times before, always has a valuable perspective to share. Thank you for bringing her to the conference, perfect way to wrap up an amazing week!
- Perfect message for this group. We need peace in our process.
- Vulnerability. Fantastic speaker. So real. That we ALL have a choice at how we respond and react to everything.

How would you improve this session?

- I wouldn't!
- Nothing
- Wish we would have had time for a Q and A with her!